RECAPITULATION.

Know-nothings and republicans voting for Banks	110
Republican know-nothings voting against Banks	8
National know-nothings voting for Fuller	35
Democrats voting for Richardson and Orr	80

Mr. Miller, of Missouri, and Mr. Childs, of New York, absent since the beginning of the session; Mr. Trumbull's seat vacant. A number of times within the last four weeks the number recorded above as having voted for Mr. Banks could have elected him; and if to these are added the republican know-nothings who vote for Mr. Pennington, it would give to the side of the House supporting Mr. Banks a clear majority of the whole number, even with an unusual attendance.

This list has been prepared with great care, and is believed to be accurate. If any gentleman is erroneously classed it will give us pleasure to make the correction. Wash. Union.

Successor to E. L. Harding.

THE UNDERSIGNED, WHO HAS BEEN FOR MANY years Clerk for E. L. The same style and class of Clothing that have given this house the reputation it now enjoys, will be kept, and the prices will be as uniform, and we hope as satisfactory in every particular.

Mr. Williams is fully authorized to settle up our books and accounts. We now, for the last time, say to all indebted us, that our business must be settled up. Reasonable time will be allowed delinquents before asking them to settle with our attorneys.

CARROLL HOUSE,
CHESTERVILLE, S. C.

THAT LARGE AND SPLENDID THREE STORY Building on the east side of Chester Depot, is now open for the accommodation of persons travelling by the Cars, or otherwise. The Proprietor is well aware, that nothing short of a well-kept house, will induce custom to this so recently gotten up; and although very solicitous of patronage, he refrains from those thousand and one promises which have been made, only to be broken by many of his "illustrious predecessors."

He confidently hopes, that he will be sustained, and upon trial give that satisfaction and accomodation to the wearied traveller, that will send him on his way rejoicing.

Rocky Mount Mills for Sale.

TO CAPITALISTS, OR TO ENTERPRISING BUSINESS men, with a limited capital, the rarest opportunity for a fine purchase is now offered.

This property lies on both sides of Tar River in the counties of Nash and Edgecombe, one mile from Rocky Mount Depot on the W. and W. R. R., and embraces the whole water power of the river at this point. The power is made available by a solid dam of granite, laid in Hydraulic Cement, and completed within the last twelve months at an expense of near ten thousand dollars. It is probably the best dam in North Carolina.

The other improvements consist of, 1st. The Cotton Factory—a most substantial granite building, 70x38 feet, two stories high, besides the basement, used for Turning shop, &c., and a commodious attic, where the reeling and packing are done. The Machinery—1716 spindles, with all the necessary machinery to run them

Clippings of Good News for Buchanan and Breckinridge, and the national Democracy.

STILL THEY COME!—The Kalamazoo Gazette contains a letter from Anthony Cooley, for more than a quarter of a century a citizen of Michigan, and always a Whig, declaring adherence to the Democratic party. He writes:

"I can hold no communication with the conglomerated organization made up of all the issues and factions of the day, led on by reckless demagogues whose only motto is to 'rule or ruin.' I shall, if I live till November next, give my support to the only national (the Democratic) party, and deposit my vote for James Buchanan and John C. Breckinridge, for President and Vice President of the United States."

The Gazette makes the following announcement:

Dr. David E. Deming, a long-tried, consistent national Whig, and formerly a State Senator and judge of this county, declares his hostility to the sectional black Republican party, and goes in for the constitution and the Union. The judge is only one of thousands of patriots who are daily placing themselves in the ranks of the only party now left that 'marches with the flag and keeps step to the music of the Union.'"

We hear of such changes (says the Detroit Free Press) all over the State. In this city we can ourselves count not less than thirty influential and prominent gentlemen, hitherto active Whigs, who will vote for Mr. Buchanan. They compose the flower of the old Whig party here. We suppose there are, altogether, from two to three hundred old Whigs in Detroit who have, within a few weeks past, determined to act hereafter with the Democratic party.

MORE CHANGES.—The Selma Sentinel, the Auburn Gazette, and the Montevallo Herald, three warm advocates of Know Nothingism in Alabama last year, have declared in favor of Buchanan and Breckinridge. Colonel Bethea, the Know Nothing Senator from Mobile county, John Whiting, State-bank commissioner, Hon. Geo. D. Shortridge, the candidate of that party for Governor last year, Hon. J. M. Withers, the Know Nothing mayor of Mobile, and Hon. Alexander White, a Whig member of Congress in 1852 from Alabama, have avowed their purpose to support the Democratic nominees for President and Vice President. These are a few of the many accessions to the Democratic party in Alabama since the nomination.

OLD-LINE WHIGS IN THE FIELD IN TENNESSEE.—We are very much gratified to learn that a number of our recent ratification meetings have been addressed by old-line Whigs. At Knoxville the Hon. Jno. H. Crozier, W. G. Swan, Esq., Col. J. R. Nelson, and Col. Geo. W. Mabry, four of the most popular men in East Tennessee, took the stand in behalf of Buchanan and Breckinridge. The meeting at Charlotte on Monday last was addressed by that old veteran and compeer of Major Henry, N. H. Allen, Esq. of Montgomery. For true native eloquence and personal popularity, Mr. Allen has but few superiors in the State. He will do yeoman service in the contest now opening, as he expressed an intention, we are informed, to canvass a large portion of the State. Major Lowe, of Robertson, another old standard-bearer in the days of Whiggery, was present, and made a telling speech to the delighted auditory. We observe, also, that Col. E. M. Yerger, one of the ablest debaters and most gifted speakers of the old Whig ranks, is advertised to address the ratification meeting at Memphis. Senator Jones, it is stated, will soon be out in a letter for "Buck and Breck." Three cheers for Tennessee!

NEW YORK.—There are three Democratic papers in New York City, contending manfully for Buchanan and the Union—to wit, the News, the Day Book, and John Mitchell's "Citizen," the Irish organ. It is not true that the Germans are going for Fremont. A few infidel Germans have declared for him; but the great body of the naturalized Irish and Germans are rallying, as of old, around the Democratic flag. New York will cast her thirty-five votes for Buchanan and Breckinridge.

STILL THEY COME.—Walter Brooks and Giles M. Hillyer have resigned as Know Nothing Electors in Mississippi.

The Montevallo (Ala.) Herald, which last year supported Judge Shortridge for Governor and advocated Know Nothingism, now hoists the names of Buchanan and Breckinridge. It goes for the South, the Constitution and the Union against Fremont.

Col. Jones M. Withers of Mobile, has renounced Know Nothingism, and will support Buchanan and Breckinridge. He was a "bright and shining light" in the order, but he can't consent to aid in Fremont's election.

Alexander White of Talladega, addressed a ratification meeting in Talladega the other day. He formerly represented the 7th district in Congress as a Whig, was a leading Know Nothing, but now goes for Buchanan from a sense of duty to his country.

The Auburn (Ala.) Gazette, late a neutral paper with Know Nothing proclivities, has run up the names of Buchanan and Breckinridge, as the only hope of defeating the black Republicans.

LETTER OF SENATOR PEARCE.—Hon. James A Pearce, a Senator of Maryland, has published a letter addressed to J. R. Franklin, Esq., of Snow Hill-Md., in response to an inquiry from that gentleman as to what part he means to take in the coming Presidential election, and what should be done by old Whigs who have never been attached to any other party, and who do not desire to enter into new political connections.

Mr. Pearce refers to the origin and career of the American party, and while he does not object to some of their designs, he disapproves of its peculiar characteristics. He thinks, further, that the Northern wing of the party came into it with purposes very different from the rest, adopted it as a cloak for their schemes, and are now mainly affiliated with the Republican party. Mr. Pearce is an Old Line Whig and a great admirer of Mr. Fillmore, but he does not feel that he would be discharging his duty at the present crisis by following his personal inclinations in giving his personal inclinations in giving him his support. He believes that the defeat of Fremont is the all-important object to be accomplished, and to effect that he is constrained to give his support to Mr. Buchanan. The letter is written with great clearness, candor, and force, and will command universal attention.

STILL THEY COME.—The Charleston Evening News is supporting Buchanan and Breckinridge. That paper has heretofore been an advocate of "Americanism" and its editor, John Cunningham, Esq., was a delegate to and one of the vice presidents of the first Philadelphia and Know Nothing Convention. The New Bedford (Mass.) Express, the Know Nothing organ, has recanted, seen the error of its way, and hoisted the Democratic flag of "Buck and Breck." The paper is well got up, and ably edited. The Democrats of New Bedford deserve to be embalmed for the energy and devotion and liberality with which they keep up their organization in that hot bed of freesoilism and federalism.

FIVE HUNDRED MASS MEETINGS.—Five hundred democratic meetings have been held in the State of Kentucky since the nomination of Buchanan and Breckinridge.

TREMENDOUS STAMPEDE.—Hon. Archie Dixon spoke in Union county, Ky., a few days since, when forty know nothings withdrew from the order, and gave in their adhesion to the democracy.

FAST GOING TO PIECES.—We publish to-day more withdrawals from the know-nothing lodges. We understand there was quite a stampede in their camp last night. The most strenuous exertions are being made to hold on to their numbers till after the August election, but in vain. The whole order seems rapidly disbanding.

Lexington Statesman, July 25.

THE NORTHWEST.—The Burlington (Iowa) Gazette is authorized to offer the following bets: $100 that Mr. Buchanan receives the electoral vote of Iowa, $100 that he receives the electoral vote of Illinois, $100 that he receives the electoral vote of Indiana, $100 that he receives the electoral vote of Kentucky, and $500 that he is elected the next President of the United States.

FREMONT A KNOW NOTHING.—The know nothing and (what is the same thing) republican papers dare not deny that their candidate, Fremont, has secretly pledged himself to the know nothing platform.—The reason why they dare not deny it is, that the fact has leaked out, and been made public. It was to the Massachusetts delegation, who waited upon him to inquire, that he made this pledge. And yet the Freemongers have the impudence to ask the Germans to vote their ticket! Hartford Times.

CONNECTICUT.—The New Haven Register, one of the best informed papers in the State of Connecticut, speaks thus of the prospects there:

"NOT ONE.—We are frequently inquired of as to how Connecticut stands on the presidential question. We have to say that we do not know of a single change in the Democratic party in this State from Buchanan to Fremont, but we do know of many in our favor from the ranks of the conservative and patriotic portion of the old whig party.—The noise and nonsense of the 'tribe of Jessie' do not affect in the least the steadiness of the democratic columns; and we have no doubt the electoral vote of the State will be given to Buchanan and Breckinridge."

KENTUCKY.—The bet of $1,000 offered in Louisville by the Journal, that Fillmore would carry Kentucky, was immediately taken, before night, by a democrat. There is no doubt that Buchanan and Breckinridge will carry Kentucky.

The black republicans are fond of taking a vote for President wherever a lot of loafers, dandies, or travellers are found together, and the result is generally in their favor; but when the people, the working men speak, the boot is on the other leg. Here is a case of this kind: at the Novelty Works in New York, where 1500 working men are employed, a vote was lately taken with the following result—Buchanan 1497; Fremont 3.

ILLINOIS WILL GIVE 25,000.—A correspondent of the Pennsylvanian, writing from Springfield, Illinois, says:

"From the best and most reliable information I have been able to procure, there seems to be but one prevailing impression, and that is that the majority for Buchanan and Breckinridge in Illinois will not fall short of, but more likely exceed, twenty-five thousand."

A correspondent of the Ohio Statesman, writing from Miami county, in that State, says that every thing looks bright for the Democracy. The know-nothing black republican lodges are being vacated by all the intelligent patriotic citizens who had been inveigled into them in that county. Among the whigs who are boldly out for Buchanan in Miami, the Statesman names the Hon. Wm. J. Thomas and H. Sellers, Esq., of the Troy bar. Mr. Thomas was formerly a whig member of the State Senate.

S. Castle, Esq., an able member of the Cleveland bar, an active old line whig politician, who travelled with Gen. Scott in this State in 1852, is out in a letter for Buchanan and Breckinridge.

Gen. Leslie Coombs of Kentucky, the great whig orator of 1852, who has been so highly applauded by the whig papers, and who enjoyed the confidence and esteem of Henry Clay, supports Buchanan and Breckinridge.

William A. Crocker, Esq., one of the old commercial and manufacturing firm of Crocker and Brother, of Taunton, Mass., has published a very able letter avowing his determination to give his vote and influence in favor of the Democratic prrty. He is a man of high character and influence, has always been a whig and was a devoted friend of Daniel Webster. Con. Patriot.

EXTRACTS FROM OUR CORRESPONDENCE.—Below we give a few extracts from business letters received at this office.

MISSISSIPPI.

"The democracy of Oktibbeha are all enthusiasm. Buchanan's majority in Mississippi will not be less than 15,000.'

TENNESSEE.

"Democracy is as flourishing as the most ardent could wish. We are making accessions daily to our numbers."

TEXAS.

"So universally acceptible are the nominees of the Cincinnati Convention that we shall have no ticket in Smith county but that of Buchanan and Breckinridge."

INDIANA.

"Send your paper to ———. He is an old line whig, but is now battling manfully in the ranks of the democrrcy, like thousands of others in this State. Buchanan will carry this State by a large majority." Wash. Union.

We are requested to state, that Messrs. W. King, Jas. Munce and Clark White of Bladen county, who had joined the Know Nothing Order, are desirous of withdrawing from it, and take this public method of announcing that they no longer consider themselves members of that order, but intend to vote for the nominees of the Democratic party at the approaching election, on Thursday next. We need hardly say that we cheerfully comply with this request. Wil. Journal.

GEORGIA.—Fillmore stands just as much chance to carry Georgia as Fremont does; and that is no chance at all. Many of the leading men ("Americans") in Georgia who voted a know-nothing ticket last year have publicly declared for Buchanan; three presses in this State that supported the "American" ticket in Georgia last fall have run up the Buchanan flag, and the democracy to a man support our ticket. Federal Union.

The black-republican journals speak of Indiana as one of the certain States for Fremont. How they expect to achieve a victory over the democracy of that State is thus disclosed by the New Albany (Indiana) Tribune:

"It is very evident that neither the friends of Mr. Fillmore nor Fremont can succeed in Indiana without a union of the two upon fair, equal terms. Let us see to this before it is too late."

We might give any numbers of extracts from all parts of the State breathing the same confident hope that, in the coming election, democracy will come out of the fight with flying colors.

Samuel B. McCormick, esq., a member of the bar of Cambria county, recently a leading whig, and once the editor of the whig paper at Johnstown, made a speech at a recent meeting in Johnstown, and declared himself henceforth an adherent and supporter of the democratic party. He argued that in the present position of parties the only proper place for the old friends of Clay and Webster was in the democratic ranks. We welcome our old friend McCormick, as an efficient co-worker, into our party. Harrisbury Union.

THE REASON WHY A MISSISSIPPIAN CAN'T SUPPORT FILLMORE.—The Ripley Advertiser says that W. C. Falkner, esq., (late editor of the "Uncle Sam," a vigorous know-nothing newspaper,) at the late democratic ratification meeting in that town "gave in his experience, and formally announced his separation from, and determination to act no longer with, the American party. He told us how he got out of the know-nothing party—not like Clinton got out of the democratic wagon, by jumping out, but that he was standing firmly on the 12th section of the American platform when it was suddenly pulled from under him and he fell flat; when he got up he was standing on something as firm as a rocks of Gibraltar; he looked around and found it was the democratic platform.

That he was in favor of the Kansas-Nebraska act, repealing the Missouri Compromise; that Fillmore and the American party were now opposed to it, and therefore he could not go with them. He announced his position in a bold, manly manner, and declared his intention to vote for Buchanan and Breckinridge in November next."

MEN FOR BUCHANAN.—Hon. James Monroe, nephew of the ex-President, and for some years a whig M. C. from New York, can't go for Fremont, and is out for Buchanan. Not a single member of General Harrison's cabinet supports Fremont, and but one of General Taylor's. All the ex-Presidents of the republic are against Fremont. The adopted son and heir of Jackson is defending Buchanan. The son and sons-in-law of Harrison the oldest son of Henry Clay and Daniel Webster, are also all for Buchanan.

A CARD TO THE CONFIDENT.

To the Editor of the Washington Union:

There is an effort making to create the impression that Fremont, Seward, Wilson, Hale, & Co. will sweep the free States of this Union in the approaching presidential election.

The men who utter and publish these declarations are not sincere, at least I do not think they are, and, with a view of testing their sincerity, I propose to wager $2,500 that James Buchanan will receive the electoral vote of Indiana in November next for President, and a like sum that he will receive a majority of the electoral votes for President of the United States in November next. The two propositions to be taken together, making $5,000 a side, to be put up in some of the banks of this city.

July 21, 1856.

Henry Clay, Daniel Webster, Silas Wright, James Buchanan, Lewis Cass, Washington, and other revered sages and patriots have told us that "disunion" was a word that should never be uttered by American lips; and the fact never be contemplated but with abhorrence. The names that we have mentioned have stood foremost with all the great parties of this country except one—and that one is the party of disunion and civil war. Were Washington, Clay, Webster, Wright alive, does any one doubt where they would be found? They would be found where Van Buren, Tyler, Reed, Randal, Preston, Ewing, Cass, Marcy, the son of Clay, the son of Jackson, and a host of others, heretofore of various parties, but now rallying with earnest energy to the only great national party, and casting into the scale the weight of their influence, their eloquence, and wisdom to crush down the stupendous conspiracy of what Colonel Benton calls "a pack of political knaves." Pittsburg Post.

THE PROSPECT IN TENNESSEE.—The Nashville (Tenn.) Union of the 9th instant gives the following gratifying account of the canvass in Tennessee:

"We have had the pleasure, within the last few days, of meeting with a number of the sterling democracy and old-line whigs of the counties of Williamson, Maury, Hickman, Wayne, Giles, Marshall, Bedford, Franklin, and Lincoln. They give us the most positive assurance that a number of the very best citizens in each of those counties, who last summer acted with our opponents, have expressed their determination to vote for Buchanan and Breckinridge. Such, we learn by letter, is the case all over the State.

"We honestly believe, from present indications, that Buchanan will carry Tennessee by ten thousand majority."

The Lancaster (Pa.) Express, a know-nothing republican paper, published in the immediate neighborhood of Mr. Buchanan's residence, is compelled to bear testimony to his unbending integrity and blameless life. After a few introductory remarks, the editor proceeds, and says:

"We know the man as one of our most respected fellow-citizens—a gentlemen of unblemished personal integrity, and unusually-agreeable manners in his social intercourse with all classes. We know him as a friend of the poor—as a perpetual benefactor of the poor widows of the city, who, when the piercing blast of each successive winter brought shrieks of cold, and hunger, and want in the frail tenements of poverty, could apply to the 'Buchanan Relief Donation' for their annual supply of wood, and, sitting down with their orphaned children in the cheerful warmth of a blazing fire, lift their hearts in silent gratitude to God, and teach their little ones to bless the name of James Buchanan."

FREMONT'S BIOGRAPHY.—A millionaire without a dollar—a statesman without a speech—a legislator almost without a vote—a military chieftain without a battle. Make room for Colonel Fremont—the gentleman who is never in the right place at the right time.

THE SWORD OF THE BRAVE.—General Jackson willed a sword to Donelson, with the injunction that he should use it when the country got into war. The war with Mexico came on, but the sword remained in its scabbard and the scabbard in Donelson's closet, while Breckinridge, with no such injunction upon him, turned out and served his country gallantly in the war.

OLD-LINE WHIGS OF ERIE COUNTY.—The old-line whigs of Erie county, Pennsylvania, had a gathering last week, and shook hands over a common resolve to support the democratic presidential ticket. North Branch News.

ARKANSAS.—The Buchanan fever still rages throughout Arkansas with unabated fury. Not the oldest and deepest-dyed know-nothing is safe. The last True Democrat contains the names of thirty-two gentlemen who have taken the fever in one week.

INDIANA.—Judging from all that we can see and hear from Indiana, the whole State, from river to lake, must be in a perfect furor of political excitement.

The Fremonters have evidently waked up the wrong passengers in that gallant State, and they should try to allay the excitement as soon as possible, or the democratic triumph there will surpass all previous victories. And so let it be.

GONE TO THE SPRINGS.—Those $1,000 wagers offered through the Saratoga Republican, that Buchanan will be the next President of the United States, if he lives, have not been responded to yet, and we venture to say they will not be approached, notwithstanding the fact, that whenever the question is asked where are the "confidence men" of the "free-love" party—the men who, according to rumor, are so anxious to bet on the success of their dark cause—the answer invariably is—"they have gone to the springs." Atlas and Argus.

THE "GALLANT" MR. WOODRUFF.—That most worthy paper, the New York Day Book, whose zeal in behalf of the South many Southern journals might properly imitate, thus characterizes this most "valiant" of Mr. Brooks' opponents:

"It is not easy to conceive of a more contemptible fellow than this man Woodruff. He is, however, just such a miserable, cowardly creature as one might expect the wooden nutmeg button makers and tin pedlers of Connecticut would send to represent them at Washington. His conduct is enough to make one fairly ashamed of his race. Just look at the poltroon; he gets up in his place and lets off a tirade of high-sounding bragadocia and common blackguardism about cowardice, ruffianism and brutality, declaring himself responsible for what he says, and looking around with an air of defiance as if he carried a gun-boat armament on his back, and screaming at the top of his voice, "come out! who dares fight me?" and sits down covered with black Republican glory. Fifteen minutes after this he is called aside by a friend of the man he has grossly abused, and asked if he will fight, when all of a sudden he discovers that his peace principles forbid the thought of hostilities! His lips become pallid, his knees tremble, and and putting up both hands he exclaims, "my dear sir, I meant no offense whatever; I will make any apology you desire; I never fight; fighting is against my principles. Do, I beseech you, sir, take my apology to Mr. Brooks and tell him I meant no offence." And this is a black Republican champion, a Connecticut hero! We do not see what respectable men, who are obliged to sit in Congress day after day, and listen to such men's blackguardism, can do; they cannot stoop to reply to their stuff, and they cannot make them stand up to their professions. The only proper way to treat them, that we can conceive of, is to kick them as one would a dirty dog."

DISTRESSING ACCOUNTS FROM TEXAS.—A letter received by a gentleman in this city from his brother, dated Huntsville, Texas, July 22nd, gives the following distressing account of the drouth in that section of the State:

"Our prospects in this country are of the gloomiest character. For twelve weeks not a drop of rain has fallen within ten miles of this place. Corn crops have failed entirely. Cotton is nearly gone. Dr. T., a planter near here, who expected to have raised 10,000 bushels of corn, told me to-day, that he should have to buy his bread for the ensuing year. He has cut down whole acres of corn merely for the tops and fodder. There are a number of planters who will not realize one peck of corn to the acre.—The grass is drying out, and the cattle are suffering to a great extent. It is the topic in every collection of men, and a general consternation prevails throughout the country."

TRUTHS SIMPLY EXPRESSED.—It is not what people eat, but what they digest, that makes them strong. It is not what they gain, but what they save that makes them rich. It is not what they read, but what they remember, that makes them learned. It is not what they profess, but what they practice that makes them righteous. These are very plain and important truths; too little heeded by gluttons, spendthrifts; bookworms and hypocrites.

GLORIOUS VICTORY!

BRAGG RE-ELECTED!!

12,000 TO 13,000

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY!

THE GREAT DEMOCRATIC TRIUMPH!!!

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS.

Thanks to the indomitable Democracy of North Carolina, we have the pleasure of proclaiming today one of the most glorious Democratic victories ever achieved in the State. It is complete, decided, and overwhelming. Know-Nothingism is not only beaten, but beaten so badly as to leave no hope for it in the Old North State. Let the friends of the Constitution, of equal rights, and of civil and religious liberty rejoice. You have saved your State from the humiliating and mortifying rejoicings of the Bankses, the Sumner's, the Wilson's and the Seward's; and you will receive the thanks and the plaudits of the Democracy of the whole Union, for your signal victory.

Below we give returns from thirty counties out of the eighty-two in the State. These exhibit a clear average gain of about 85 votes for each county, and give assurance that Gov. Bragg's majority will range between 8 and 10,000. This settles the question, respecting the vote of North Carolina, in November, beyond all dispute.

Look at the returns, and compare results with the vote two years ago. The Democracy have not only done well at home—here and in this Congressional district—but in all parts of the State, North and South, East and West.

Western Democrat.

WE HAVE MET THE ENEMY AND HE IS OURS.—From the seaboard to the mountains the peaceful battle has been waged, and the decisive issue made at the ballot-box. The smoke of the contest is now clearing off, and the result is becoming known. It is a result of which all may well be proud. North-Carolina sends greeting to her sisters of the South—she sends greeting to the conservative men of the North, and she proclaims by acts and majorities, which speak louder than words, that she is ready. That when the day of trial comes she can be depended upon. She will speak even louder and more emphatically in November next.

To our gallant standard-bearer all honor is due. Manfully and ably has he led the column, and from the youngest to the oldest soldier in the ranks, all have stood up to the work. We know how they worked here in New Hanover—here in Wilmington, and felt that victory was certain to perch upon our banner. It does us good to see the old Cape Fear District roll up the old-time majority; and she will do it. Aye, more than do it. She will give over three thousand for Bragg—considerably over it, we trust. She cannot come under it.

We can all fully understand the ante-election jubilance of the defeated party. We see exactly the same sort of thing in the way they taik, and we suppose will keep talking, about Fillmore stock rising. The people at the polls blow all these bubbles to the winds. They will keep blowing them and bursting them.

But let us rejoice over what we believe to be the common good—The union of the South for its own salvation. If our Know Nothing friends would only view matters in their proper light, they would see that the victory is theirs as much as it is ours, for it is for the good of the country.

Wilmington Journal.

"CARRY NORTH-CAROLINA."—Ex-Governor Graham is reported to have assured the people, in his late Guilford speech, that Fillmore would carry North Carolina by a large majority. All this prophetical wisdom comes of his having been a "member of Fillmore's Cabinet," we suppose. We cannot think how he could have got hold of so much political wisdom and foresight in any other way.—Certainly not in the line of sober calculation and common sense investigation.

Wilmington Commercial.

We give below an extra from the Standard office, under date of the 9th, from which it will be seen that Know Nothingism has received its death wound in the State. Hurra for the Democracy of North Carolina! They have sent the most cheering news to their brethren throughout the Union, and have emphatically declared in advance for Buchanan and Breckinridge by an overwhelming majority. North Carolina says to her sister States in the confederacy, "KEEP THE BALL IN MOTION."

Warrenton News.

A TIME FOR ALL THINGS.—We have little stomach for politics just now—and less for the practical part indicated by election returns. For these matters we take the liberty of referring to the standard, and kindred prints. For a week or two we shall talk of more genial subjects—of beeves, and babies, and sweet hearts, and wives, of lambs, love and domestic felicity. These are the poetry of life—politics its prose. For the present we are poets, the whole seventeen.

We can not dabble in politics at present. 'Pon honor we cannot. If our friends don't like it, they must lump it. How can we, when we have just been whipped all over, like old Ben. Steven's calf, "in every principal part?" We must have time to look around us awhile, and see how the land lies, before we can gather ourself together, and gird up our loins for another fight. When our eyes get unbunged, and our nose stops bleeding, and our old cocked hat gets straight again, why then we are in for another war. But we must breathe a little now. We must have time to muse, and to compose ourpose ourselves by the singing of "sams and hymes and spirit-al songs." By and by, we will pull off our coat, roll up our sleeves, and try old Jordan again.

Raleigh Signal, K. N.

ALL HONOR FOR OLD BLADEN.—Nobly have the Democrats of old Bladen fulfilled their pledges to their party, and redeemed their county. Nobly have they brought her out from under the Know Nothing influence that over-clouded her one short year ago. All honor to the old county and her sterling Democrats, old and young. One brief year and Reid, Know Nothing, carried the county by 128 majority. Now Bragg, Democrat, carries it by 129 majority, and the whole Democratic ticket is put through without one failure. White, Willis, and Taylor. And she did come out well and nobly for Taylor, giving him 52 majority. If only the other counties had done as well! But there is no use in recriminations or fault-findings. The thing for us all is to go manfully to work, in view of the great national contest of November.

Our Know Nothing neighbor rather rejoiced too soon over Bladen. It counted its chickens some time before they were hatched. Its Purdie, its Gilmer and its Jones majorities in Bladen were no-where. The Cards published in the Journal were true Cards.

If we have had fears for Bladen, we have no fears now. She is right side up with care, and she contains the right sort of men to use that care. We look for her fullest old-time majority for Buchanan and Breckinridge. Wil. Journal.

THE MAJORITY.—Our readers will recollect that we some time ago told them that the Democracy of North Carolina would be amenable to censure, if they failed to give a majority of 10 or 12,000 for Mr. BRAGG. Ten thousand was the number for which we covenanted in our own mind. The Standard thinks that 8 or 10,000 will be the figures. Very well. Any one can afford to make a small discount for prompt payment these hard times. But, really, we cannot think of less than 15,000 in November, when Southern Rights, or Constitution or no Constitution comes fairly up before the people.

Wilmington Commercial.

BUCHANAN AND BRECKINRIDGE.—Whilst we have no complaint to make of the uniform support which the Democrats and anti-Know Nothings of this section of the State gave to Gov. Bragg and the Democratic ticket in the elections held on Thurday last, truth and candor compel us to affirm that we know a great many men who either voted for Gilmer or declined to vote at all, that avow their determination to sustain Buchanan and Breckinridge in November. They look upon the approaching political contest as involving principles and interests far more vital and important to the institutions of the South than the State elections which have just transpired.

Warrenton News.

WELL DONE WARREN!—In behalf of the Democracy of North Carolina, we return to our friends in this county our sincere and grateful acknowledgments for the increased majority which they gave Bragg in the election on Thursday. The Democracy of Warren have given a good account of themselves, and have shown again their noble devotion to the cause of equal rights and to the principles of the Constitution. They have increased the majority of Bragg by 133 votes, which, under the circumstances, is doing remarkably well. The death-knell of Know-Nothingism has been rung in the land of Macon, and scarcely any one is left to do honor to its memory. "Sam" made his death-struggle here on Thursday last, but was devoured by the lion-hearted Democracy of Warren. He is a dead cock in the pit, and will never crow again in this county.

Warrenton News.

THE RESULT IN FORSYTH.—From the official returns which we present below, it will be seen that the entire Democratic ticket has succeeded in our County by a largely increased majority. The vote is the largest ever poll d in the County.

Gov. Bragg's majority is 154. His majority in 1854 was 95. A Democratic gain of 59. The majority for Martin, Democrat, for the Senate, is 108—a large gain. Majority for Masten, Democrat, over Wilson, K. N., 132.—Majority for Waugh, Democrat, over Matthews, K. N., 111. Mr. Flynt's majority for Sheriff 236.

This is needed a most glorious victory. If our sister Counties have done as well, the Old North State has gone for Bragg by at least 10,000 majority. There was great rejoicing in the sqare last evening, when the result was known. A salute was fired, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed until a late hour.

We offer to the editor of the People's Press the assurance of our sincere sympathy and condolence. He worked hard but if he has effected anything, it has been against himself and his party. We recommend to the gentleman "a prudent husbandry of his resources," in future. Western Sentinel.

The result in Wayne county is peculiarly gratifying to the friends of Governor Bragg, as well as to every citizen who fully appreciates the blessings of our government, as it is, and the inestimable worth of this glorious Union. It was thought, by some, that local dissensions would operate unfavorably on the cause of our gallant leader, and be the means of reducing his majority in the county. This we knew was a false conclusion, and we are glad to see that the result justifies our opinion. Indeed such was the intensity of feeling manifested in the local elections, especially between the friends of the candidates for the Commons, that we saw every available vote would be polled. It was so, and Wayne county polled a larger vote on last Thursday, than she ever did before. It redounded to Bragg's advantage, enhanced the cause of Democracy, and the result is, that Governor Bragg received from the voters of Wayne a nett gain of two hundred and seventeen votes.

At the general result in the State, the Democracy of the entire Union will rejoice. The first of a series of State elections, it will tell powerfully for Democracy and the Union. Nor do we fear that, under the present aspect of things, a single Southern State will pronounce a verdict adverse to that which North Carolina has recorded. All, as one, will declare for Democracy and the Union, and unite, next November, to elect "Buck and Breck," to save the Union, and strangle fanaticism in its defiled cradle. With such a result, and such it will be, Bragg and the Democracy of North Carolina are inseparably connected; to contemplate which is glory enough for any poor mortal, this side of eternity.

A CARD.

I have heretofore been a Whig, and a member of the American party; but I shall vote for Buchanan and Breckinridge, and shall act for the future with the Democratic party. I shall do this, simply and solely because I believe it to be the only course calculated to preserve the Constitution, to perpetuate the Union, and to protect the property and the lives of the people of my native State against the aggressions of the black Republicans. I shall do it, not as a Whig, or as an American, or as a Democrat—but as a citizen, without regard to party associations and party ties.

The American party, which was once national, has ceased to be so. Repeated secessions from it in the free States, during the last twelve months—and secessions from it too because it occupied sound ground on the question of slavery—have left it with but little strength in that quarter, the greater portion of its members having thus merged themselves in the black Republican organization; while in the South it is well known that it cannot count with certainty on even one State. As highly as I think of Mr. Fillmore, I cannot close my eyes to the fact that he stands no chance to be elected. The contest is between Mr. Buchanan, the candidate of a national party, and Mr. Fremont, the candidate of a sectional party. The election of the former would give security to the country, and would prolong the duration of the Union; the election of the latter would be the death-knell of the Union, and the beginning of troubles and strifes of which no one can foresee the end. Under such circumstances I cannot hesitate as to my course. My pecuniary interests, my affection for my native State, and my respect and reverence for the Constitution and the Union, all call upon me to forget party associations and party pride in this great crisis, and to go with that party which can do most, and which must, indeed, do all that can be effected, to arrest the progress of abolitionism and save the country.

These are my reasons, for my course, and I have given them frankly. I have thus made them public, because I have been honored with the confidence of both the Whig and American parties; and it is due to my friends in those parties that I should inform them of the course I intend to pursue. No man can, with truth, charge that I am faithless to the American party; for I have ceased to act with it, and shall act with the Democratic party, on an issue and for a purpose far higher and more important than any that could be involved or presented by any party—I mean, the issue of Union or Disunion. I am for the Constitution and the Union; and I shall take that course which, in my judgment, is best calculated to protect the one and save the other. I know that my motives have been questioned, and that many of my former party associates are uttering bitter things against me. I cannot help it,—I must do right, be the consequences what they may. I part with many of my friends with regret, but I trust before November they will see the issue as I do, and give their votes for Buchanan and Breckinridge. To my enemies all I have to say is, I ask no favors and make no concessions. Time will show who is right in this matter, and who wrong.

MESSRS. EDITORS: I take this method of saying to the public, that some time last summer I was induced to join the dark lantern order of Know Nothingism. Ever since I have been anxious to withdraw; but could not meet with an opportunity, as there has not been any council held within my reach since that time; therefore, I am determined not to remain with them or vote for them any longer; and consequently intend to come out of that vile and polluted order, which tends to corrupt the political parties of the country. Vile, I say, because I know something about it, therefore I have a right to express my opinion. And I now declare, that I will never again be bound to support any party against my wishes to please others; therefore I am with the Democratic party now and forever, in defiance of Know Nothingism. Here is three cheers for Bragg and old Buck.

Yours, &c.,

FALSEHOODS NAILED.—We see our exchanges come out with the head "another falsehood nailed." We tell you what it is, gents, if you attempt to nail all the falsehoods that will be uttered about Buchanan, between this and his election to the Presidency, in November, you must get hammers that go by steam. Flesh and blood can't stand it.

Sale of Land, Mills, Negroes, &c.

PURSUANT TO A DEED OF TRUST EXECUTED to me on the 17th of day of April, 1856, by Jacob Strickland, of Nash Co., N. C., for purposes therein specified, I shall proceed to sell, on Wednesday, the first day of October, 1856, at the residence of the said Jacob Strickland, the following property, or as much thereof as will satisfy said Trust, cost, &c., viz: Fifteen likely negroes, consisting of men, women, boys and girls; the tract of land on which the said Strickland now resides, situate and lying on the South side of Tar River, adjoining the land of E. H. Morgan and others, 16 or 18 miles below Louisburg, containing about one thousand acres. There is situated in a beautiful grove, on the said tract, a two-storied dwelling house, with six or eight rooms, a porch in front, and piazza in the rear,—other necessary houses in and about the yard and grove; also a well of good water in the yard. The upland on said tract is adapted to the culture of tobacco and wheat, and other grain. There is also one or two hundred acres of river and creek low grounds on this tract, and Turpentine boxes on the upland sufficient to employ several hands. One other tract of land on the North side of Tar river adjoining the land of Britton Wood and others, containing two hundred acres. All of said tract is upland, with several thousand turpentine boxes on it. Also one other tract of land on the North side of Tar river, adjoining the land of J. B Rice and others, containing, by estimation, two hundred acres, on which is a manufacturing wheat and corn mill, and a saw mill. Said mills are very profitable when properly managed. There is also on said tract a mill site on Tar river, convenient to remove the fixtures of the mills from where they now stand, at small expense, which would make them very valuable. Also horses, cattle, hogs, household and kitchen furniture, tools, &c.

A credit will be given on the land, the purchaser giving bonds with good security. The negroes will be sold for cash. The sale will continue from day to day until the Trust is satisfied.

The aforesaid property can be sold privately by application to me.

Governor and Legislature.

All the Counties in the State have been heard from but nine, to-wit, Carteret, Cherokee, Currituck, Davie, Gaston, Hyde, Jackson, Macon and Watauga.

Gov. Bragg's vote in 78 Counties is 50,088—Mr. Gilmer's, 38,333. Assuming that the nine Counties to be heard from, vote as they did in 1854, Gov. Bragg's majority would be 11,882. But he has no doubt gained in these Counties; and his majority will range between twelve and thirteen thousand.

We expect by our next to be able to complete the Governor's table, and to state also the exact majority in the Legislature. We think the Democratic and anti-Know Nothing majority in the Legislature will not be less than forty on joint ballot.

☞ We invite attention to the Card of Chas. A. Harrison, Esq., of Sampson Co., in our paper to-day, giving his reasons for acting with the national Democratic party. Mr. Harrison unites himself with such old line Whigs and Americans as Cameron, Winslow, Terry, Kerr, Robards, and thousands of other patriots, who prefer their country to party, and who perceive, in this hour of gloom and apprehension, no ray of hope for the Constitution and the Union but in the great national Democratic party. All such men are welcome. We trust that many more of the same stamp will follow their example.

☞ We send the present number of the Semi-Weekly Standard to many new Weekly subscribers, in order to furnish them with early election news. The edition of our last Weekly has been entirely exhausted.

If we triumph, we may gain political supremacy in the State—a Governor—the Legislature—and give such an impetus to the cause of Fillmore and Donelson throughout the country, as to render their election a moral certainty.

MORE AID!—The Hon. Percy Walker, of Alabama, is out for Buchanan. The last Washington Union says:

"HON. PERCY WALKER'S SPEECH.—In another part of the paper will be found a full and corrected report of the elaborate speech delivered by Hon. Percy Walker, of Alabama, in the House of Representatives, on the 6th instant, on the presidential election. Mr Walker has hitherto been known to the country as a leading and influential member of the know-nothing party. He was elected by that organization to the position which he now occupies with so much dignity and ability. He frankly tells us, in the course of his remarks, that he believes Mr. Fillmore's chances of an election are utterly hopeless; and were it otherwise, he could not support him in consequence of the platform upon which he stands. In view of the impending crisis, brought about by demagogism on the one side, and the mad spirit of sectionalism on the other, he conceives it his duty—duty to his constituents, his State, and his country—to give his support to James Buchanan, the democratic candidate for the presidency. He concludes by gracefully informing the know-nothing party of his district that if his present views meet with their disapprobation, he is ready to resign his seat as soon as instructions to that effect reach him through county conventions of his former political associates."

THE SUBSCRIPTION SAFE.—We take pleasure in stating, that the citizens decided almost unanimously, yesterday, to authorize an unconditional subscription of $200,000 to the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad. The following is the vote:

No Subscription,	57

Wilmington Herald.

CORRECTION.—We were in error in stating, that Mr. Holmes was the democratic nominee for Sheriff in New Hanover county. The Democrats made no nomination. Mr. Hall was elected.

Elections in other States.

With the exception of Iowa, the recent elections have resulted gloriously for the Democratic party. Iowa is claimed by the black Republicans by from three to five thousand majority; but, as we learn from the Washington Star, it is by no means certain that they have a clear victory in that State. Strong hopes are entertained of the re-election of Mr. Hall, Dem. to Congress. The Star says:

"IOWA.—The Hon. Mr. Hall reached Washington yesterday, arriving under the firm conviction of his re-election to the House of Representatives of the United States. We learn that before he left Iowa he had satisfied himself that, in the twelve counties of his district, from which he had received reliable returns, he had done 600 votes better than at his first election. There were but four counties in those remaining to be heard from, which he failed to carry two years ago: and his ante election information is said to have led him to the conclusion that he could not fail to run as well in them as before. Under these circumstances, he is confident that he is re-elected, we hear, notwithstanding the tenor of the dispatches from Chicago, which are so confused as to amount, in his judgment, to little or nothing.—We are not sufficiently posted in the details of Iowa politics to express a judgment of our own on the subject, but have far greater confidence in his judgment in the premises than on that of the class of politicians who get up and send off the election news by telegraph for the associated press. A very few days, however, will serve to solve the problem of the Iowa election, which is really yet in a fog."

There was great rejoicing among the K. N's when the telegraph announced that Crittenden county, in Arkansas, had elected the entire K. N. ticket; and on that insignificant statement the State was declared to have gone in the same direction. But poor "Sam!"—he gets cold comfort at every turn. It seems that even Crittenden county has voted for the Democrats; and the majority for Elias N. Conway, Dem. for Governor, over Yell, K. N. will exceed 5,000! Good for Arkansas, and just what we expected.

In Missouri there are three parties—the Democratic, headed by Polk for Governor—the K. N's, headed by Ewing, and the Bention party, headed by Thos. H. Benton. A despatch from St. Louis, dated August 11, announces it as quite certain that the Democrats have carried the State over the K. N's and Benton combined. Another grand result. Caruthers, Anderson, Woodson, Craig, Blair, Green and Phelps elected to Congress.

In Kentucky, the Democrats have gained about 8,000 votes in sixty-eight counties.

The result in these States, with that in North-Carolina, renders it morally certain that James Buchanan will be the next President. Mr. Fillmore is not in the race; and the hosts of sectionalism and disunionism under Fremont, will be overwhelmed by the united national Democracy.

DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING.—According to announcement a Mass Meeting of the Democracy of Rowan was held in the Court-House on Tuesday last. Speeches were made during the afternoon by Hon. B. Craige, R. P. Waring, Esq., Democratic Elector, Mr McLean and Frank I. Wilson.

After the usual preliminaries of organization, Mr. Craige took the stand and enchained the attention of the multitude for more than an hour with one of the ablest political speeches we have ever listened to. He completely refuted all the charges made by the K. N. party against the present administration, and showed conclusively that the peace and safety of the country depends upon the success of the Democratic party in November next, and the elevation of that sound, conservative National democrat, James Buchanan, to the Presidential chair. The question for the people to decide is, whether they will have Buchanan and perpetuate the Union, or Fremont and dis-Union. Mr. Fillmore's chances are utterly hopeless, and every vote cast for him in the South will be an indirect vote for the abolition party at the North. Mr. C. dealt in facts and not in speculative probabilities, and must have succeeded in convincing every man present, of whatever party, that it would be suicidal in this contest to cast a vote for any other than Mr. Buchanan. He concluded by making a rapid review of the doings of the present Congress, as an example of what we might expect if a Black Republican should unfortunately be made President. His speech was well received throughout, and he was repeatedly greeted with the most deafening applause.

R. P. Waring, Esq., was then introduced to the meeting. He made a short, but excellent speech. The call upon him was entirely unexpected, as it had been arranged that he should address the meeting at night. He is a forcible and very effective speaker, thoroughly acquainted with all the political questions which are agitating the country, and is doing good service in the campaign. He was followed by Messrs. McLean and Wilson, both of whom made good and telling speeches. The meeting then adjourned to meet again at candle-light.

At about 8 o'clock the re-assembling took place when Mr. Clement of Davie, came forward and addressed the assemblage in a very forcible and eloquent manner. He was followed by Messrs. McLean and Wilson, who wound up the preformances for the day. The meeting adjourned amidst the most intense enthusiasm. Salisbury Banner.

MASS METTING IN WINSTON.—The meeting at this place on Tuesday last, although not very large, was very spirited and enthusiastic. The attendance, under all the circumstances, was considerably larger than we had expected.

Thos. Settle, Jr., Esq., of Rockingham, our candidate for Elector in the sixth District, addressed the people in one of the ablest and most eloquent addresses to which we have listened in some time. His manner of bringing forward his arguments and proofs, and the interersting and effective style of his address, enchained the undivided attention of the audience for some two hours.

We have never heard a more complete refutation of the doctrines of Know-Nothingism—a more eloquent vindication of the great principles of Democracy, than Mr. Settle made in his effort on this occasion. It was the first time we have had the pleasure of hearing him upon a political subject; and we are fully assured that he forms a most worthy and excellent candidate for the Electorship. He is more than a match for Gen. Leach—although a much younger man; and, if Mr. Settle shall thoroughly canvass the District previous to the election in November, we feel confident it will go for Buchanan.

Mr. Settle is entitled to the thanks of the Democracy of Forsyth for the self-sacrificing exertions he has made in order to be present at the meeting, and for the able and highly interesting speech which he delivered on the occasion. Western Sentinel.

OUR PROSPECTS IN THIS STATE.—From every part of this State we have the most cheering news. The Democracy are buckling on their armor, and seem determined that the last vestige of Know-Nothing abolitionism shall be swept from our borders. We can assure the Democracy of the State that if they do their whole duty, Mr. Buchanan will be the next President. We are not over confident, and we do not exaggerate. Never was the Democratic party in this city so well united and so strong as it is at the present moment. And it is determined to disperse and annihilate the opposing bands. This union and spirit, is not confined to the city, alone, but to the whole State. New York Day Book.

CROPS IN NORTH ALABAMA.—The Huntsville Democrat of August 7, says:

"The dry weather, which has continued for two months past, has been most disastrous to the crops in North Alabama. Cotton will not exceed half an average, if as much; and corn, with the exception of some districts blessed with occasional showers, will prove almost a total failure—many large fields not averaging a barrel to the acre, and on thin or exhausted land not a bushel."

POLITICAL TREASON.—The Washington correspondent of the Columbus Times & Sentinel, asserts a deep plot is going on, at the bottom of which is Kenneth Rayner, of N. C. designed to entrap the Southern Know Nothings into the support of Fremont. Floridian & Journal.

The Illinois Central Rail Road Company have been trying an experiment in running their engines. In running 109 miles, the following result was obtained:—Wood, 5 cords at $5,75, $28,75; coal, 52 bushels, at 15 cents, $7,80—saving with coal $20,95.

THE CROPS.

The following is an extract from a letter from a planter of Prince William's Parish, S. C. dated August 6th:

"The planters, many of them up here, are complaining dreadfully of the want of rain; some say their cotton, corn, and everything else is burning up. It is at present very dry, also, with me; but I have been in no want of rain, but on the contrary, have been, until within ten days, injured by too much of it. My provision crops are very fine; my cotton, although hurt by too much rain, is visibly improving every day. Our cotton crops, generally, were late in coming up, and whether good crops will be made will depend upon the lateness of a frost, and other unforeseen contingencies."

NORTH-CAROLINA.—We have been favored with the following extracts from letters addressed to a commercial house in this city, in regard to the corn crop in North-Carolina:

"WASHINGTON, N. C., Aug. 1, 1856.—The prospect for next crop, in and about our section, is really bad. Some farmers are, at this time, cutting their stalks down for fodder. The drought has almost completely ruined the growing crops."

"EDENTON, N. C., Aug. 2, 1856.—The prospect for the growing crop of corn is very gloomy. We have had six weeks of drought, and if it should hold on much longer I know not what we shall do for bread next year."

"COLERAINE, N. C., Aug. 4, 1856.—Our crops are ruined by the extreme drought. I had no rain for six weeks."

MISSISSIPPI.—A letter to the New Orleans Delta, dated Vicksburg, August 2, says:

"During two days I have had opportunities of hearing from nearly all the counties and parishes bordering on the Mississippi, from the mouth of Red River to the mouth of the Arkansas River, and everywhere in that region the cotton crops are represented to be seriously injured by the long wet spell which has been prevailing. The harm done by the worms, though considerable in some instances, is said to be trifling to that caused by the rains. For two days that I was on the Southern Belle coming to this city, I do not think I was out of sight of a shower two hours consecutively, and such has been the character of the weather for more than a month, almost continuously. The effect of such weather is to produce a too luxuriant growth of the cotton—causing the stalks and limbs to grow at the expense of the bolls, or "forms," which, from being too much shaded, wither or rot and fall off. In consequence of these facts some good judges are of opinion that the cotton crop in the Mississippi bottom will be nearly ruined if this extraordinary weather continues much longer, and as it is, that it will be materially shortened. But by way of compensation it would seem the same weather that brings disaster to the crop in one section proves a benefit to it in another; for the hill crops, both in Mississippi and Louisiana, are said to be much better than usual."

EAST MISSISSIPPI.—The Columbus Democrat, of the 30th ult., says:

"We have had a long spell of oppressively hot, dry weather. In some parts of the county, we have been told, there has been no rain to do any good for the last eight or nine weeks. Of course, the corn crop must have suffered greatly. About the 1st of June that crop was as promising as it was ever known to be in this county. But the dry spell which set in very soon afterwards has almost completely blasted the hopes of many of our planters. Besides the drought, the army worm and the cut worm, we have been informed, have done serious damages to corn in many neighborhoods. The wheat crop was mostly a failure in this section of the country, at least we are assured it fell greatly below the yield of last year. We have no particular information as to the condition and prospect of the cotton crop—but that, too, we believe, has suffered from various causes; it is backward, owing to the late cold spring, and does not promise near so well as it did this time last year. However, should the next two months prove favorable, and should it be late in the fall before cold weather sets in and Jack Frost honors us with a visit, it is probable that the crop will be an average one, or very nearly approaching it."

EASTERN TEXAS.—The Tyler (Smith county) Reporter, of the 23d ult., says:

"We were blessed on Sunday and Monday last with copious showers of rain cooling the heated atmosphere, and placing the certainty of an abundant crop beyond a doubt. The clouds indicated that the rain was a general one throughout the country east of us; and, from all accounts, it was greatly needed, as we learn that corn, in some of the more eastern and southern counties, was literally drying and burning up. We have heard of some contracts being made in this county for corn at 30 cents per bushel, at the crib. Smith will have an abundance for home consumption, emigrants, and travellers."

GOOD WHEAT.—Never has there been such a yield of wheat in Northern Missouri as the present year. The crop has now all been cut, and the question as to the yield is not a matter of doubt. From twenty-five to forty bushels per acre is, perhaps, a fair estimate of the crop. When we consider the large extent of ground which has been devoted to wheat this year, with this yield we have a faint idea of the amount of the raw material now in the country. So far as we can learn, the wheat is also of superior quality, as is usual when there is a large yield.

St. Joseph (Mo.) Gazette.

INDIANA ALL RIGHT!—A silly story having circulated that Mr. Willard, the Democratic candidate for Governor, had given up the State, that gentleman has thought proper to publish the following refutation over his own signature:

In connection with this matter of making appointments, I will avail myself of the opportunity of replying to the allegation made by certain members of the opposition, that I had expressed the opinion that Indiana would cast her vote against the Democratic State and National tickets. I never expressed such an opinion publicly or privately, to friend or foe; but, on the contrary, I have said to all men, and everywhere, there was no doubt of the result; and that Indiana would give a large majority, both in October and November, for the Democratic nominees. My opinion is not changed. I have visited more counties than any candidate of either party, and I assure the national men of Indiana that a majority of her citizens are determined that she shall be heard, declaring herself for the Constitution and the Union, and the Democratic State and national nominees.

And, in addition, in my judgment, eight Congressional Districts will certainly elect Democratic Representatives to Congress, and our friends are full of hope, that the two doubtful districts will do likewise. A. P. WILLARD.

Hurrah for Indiana!

ILLINOIS.—We are authorized to bet two thousand five hundred dollars that the State of Illinois will cast her electoral vote for Buchanan in November next. If the sum is deemed too small, we are furthermore authorized to increase the bet to five thousand dollars. Washington Union.

ALL RIGHT IN MISSISSIPPI.—The following is an extract of a letter dated Jackson, Aug. 2, 1856:

I have only canvassed eleven counties, up to this time, and find the Democracy stronger in Mississippi than at any former period. Many, indeed most of the Whigs who had the virtue to resist the embraces of Sam, have joined us, and you may confidently set Mississippi down for 10,000 majority.

Very truly, your friend.

HORRID MURDER.—On last Thursday, about one o'clock a lady named Ann Melissa, daughter of Mr. Richard Taylor of stump Sound district, Onslow county, was found not far from her father's residence, having evidently been murdered within an hour of the time when she was found. The marks on her person indicate that she was choked to death, marks of fingers being upon her neck which was also much swollen. The deceased was an exceedingly amiable young lady, and very much respected. The occurrence has caused a deep sensation in the neighborhood. The excitement is very great. Miss Taylor was about nineteen years of age.

Suspicion attaches to a young negro fellow belonging to Mr. Nehemiah Taylor. There is no positive proof, but circumstances are of such a character, that he has been taken up and is now in the Jail of New Hanover county for safe keeping, to await his trial at the next term of Onslow Superior Court. Wil. Journal.

DISTRESSING HOMICIDE.—On Thursday night last, Mr. Mark Parker, of this county, killed his brother George B. Parker. There had been some rumors in that vicinity of trouble among the negroes, and George returning home late at night was hailed by his brother as he entered the house—receiving no answer, Mark fired his gun at the supposed intruder, shooting him in the breast and instantly killing him. They were both young men without families, and sons of Arthur Parker, deceased. Tarboro' Southerner.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On Friday of last week, Mr. Henry Jenkins, of this county, carried his wife to her father's, Mr. Jesse Stansell, in Pitt county, on a visit. She appeared to be in good health, but on Saturday morning, after eating breakfast, she rose from the table, walked across the room and fell dead without a struggle or a groan. She was about twenty years of age. Tarboro' Southerner.

The Know Nothings have set on foot a story that Gen. Jackson warned President Polk against Mr. Buchanan, "as he thought him unfit to be a member of his Cabinet." The Chambersburg (Pa.,) Valley Spirit announces on its knowledge that the very reverse is true, and it declares, on the authority of a distinguished gentleman, who had it from the lips of James K. Polk himself, during his Presidential term, that he consulted Gen. Jackson before forming his Cabinet, and the General advised him to take Mr. Buchanan for Secretary of State. It is hardly necessary, however, to contradict a falsehood like the one under consideration. Nobody will believe that Jackson advised Polk not to appoint Mr. Buchanan to office, when the General himself had conferred upon him the high post of Minister to Russia.

OFFICE OF BOARD OF HEALTH, CHARLESTON, S. C.

The Board of Health report one death from yellow fever in the Marine Hospital, and one in the city, for the past twenty-four hours—and no increase in the number of cases.

From Kansas.

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—Advices received from Leavenworth, up to Wednesday last, say the Overland Emigrant Company had entered Kansas and had probably arrived in safety.

A party of Dragoons, headed by Judge Lecompe which entered Nebraska to arrest Gov. Lane, returned without having effected their object.

There were rumors of a battle between the Emigrants and the Regulators, near the Nebraska line, but they are not generally credited.

It was rumored in Nebraska City on the 30th ult., that a large force of the Missourians and Carolinians had invaded the territory, and blockaded the public roads. The volunteers had marched forward to expel them.

THE FIRST BALE.—The first bale of new cotton was received yesterday over the Manchester road. It was made by General William Evans, of Marion District, South Carolina, and consigned to Henry Nutt, Esq., of this place. General Evans, we understand, is the same gentleman who shipped the first bale ever sent over the road, and has since that time always been the earliest in the market.

Wilmington Journal.

DIED,

In Wake county, on the 11th instant, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Hinton, aged 46 years, widow of Benson Hinton, dec'd, and daughter of Hillory Wilder, deceased. The death of this estimable woman has occasioned profound sorrow among her numerous relations and friends. She was a good neighbor, a kind and indulgent mistress, and respected and beloved by all who enjoyed her friendship.

In Union there is Strength—Let the People Rule

THE SUBSCRIBERS, HAVING PURCHASED THE Young American with all its apparatus, propose commencing the publication of a paper under the above title, and devoted to the principles and interests of the Democratic Party, on or about the 7th of August next.

The coming Presidential Election will be one of unusual importance. The Democratic Party, true to its old landmarks, and its great responsibility as the only National Party in existence, has planted itself on principles, on the prevalence of which depend the maintenance of the Constitution and the perpetuity of our Union. They will be assailed by the Abolitionists and their allies, at every point, and with every weapon of political warfare; by misrepresentation, falsehood, and passionate sectional appeals. These assailants must be driven back in ut

Raleigh, N. C., 1st Aug., 1856. 75—

THIS UNPARALLELED PREPARATION IS RECEIVING more testimonials of its wonderful efficacy in removing pain, than any other medicine ever offered to the public. And these testimonials come from persons of every degree of intelligence and every rank of life.—Physicians of the first respectability, and perfectly conversant with the nature of diseases and remedies, have recommended this as one of the most effectual in their line of preparations for the extinction of pain. The Pain Killer is used internally and externally, according to the nature of the complaint. It has been found to be an excellent remedy for sudden colds, coughs, &c., fever and ague, asthma and phthysic, pain in the head, kidney complaints, bruises and sores, severe burns, canker, boils and ringworms, weak stomach and general debility, painter's colic, broken breast, &c., bowel complaint and dysintery, cholera, liver complaint and dyspepsia, toothache, &c., &c.

TISBURY, Martha's Vineyard.

This may certify that I have used Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer with great success in cases of Cholera infantum, common bowel complaint, bronchitis, coughs, colds, &c., and would cheerfully recommend it as a valuable family medicine.

JAMES C. BOOMER,
Pastor of the Baptist Church.

This may certify that I have used Perry Davis' Veg. Pain Killer in numerous cases, and believe it to be a very valuable medicine. I have prescribed it extensively in bowel complaint, particularly for children, and it is in my opinion superior to any preparation I have ever used for the relief of those diseases.

When given to children, I have always combined it with the syrup of gum arabic, say ten drops to a tea-spoonful of the syrup, well mixed. Others have mixed it with milk and molasses, equal parts.

A. HUNTING, M. D.

This certifies that I have for several years used Mr. Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer in several of those cases for which it is recommended, and find it a very useful family medicine.

A. BRONSON,
Pastor of the 2d Baptist Church in Fall River.

Mr. Perry Davis—Sir: I have used in my family your medicine, called Pain Killer, for many purposes, and have found it a very useful and valuable article. I therefore very cheerfully recommend it to the public regards.

Yours, very truly,
HENRY CLARK,
Pastor of the Baptist Church in West Randolph.

CALCUTTA, November 4th, 1855.

Messrs. Perry Davis & Son:—I find it necessary to address you again, as my most sanguine expectations have been more than realized. The call for your valuable medicine is increasing so rapidly that I fear I shall soon be unable to keep pace with it. My particular object in writing now is to beg that on receipt of this you will kindly despatch another lot as ordered in my letter of June last. I hope I will not be entirely out before your last despatch reaches me, of which, however, I have not yet heard from you.

J. L. CARRAU.

Messrs. Perry Davis & Son: Having witnessed the beneficial effects of your celebrated Pain Killer in several cases of the Dysintery and Cholera Morbus within a few months past, and deeming it an act of benevolence to the suffering, promoted by the feeling of a common humanity, I most cheerfully recommend its use to such as may be suffering from the aforementioned or similar diseases, as a safe, and as far as my observation goes, an effectual remedy.

Yours, very respectfully,
EDWARD K. FULLER,
Pastor of the 1st Bap. Church, Somerset, Mass.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.—From the reports of dealers in this city, we think no proprietory medicine has had a larger sale. Its valuable properties, as a speedy cure for pain, cannot fail to be generally appreciated, and no family should be without it, in case of accident, or sudden attack of dysintery, diarrhœa, cholera morbus, and even Asiatic cholera, yields to its magic power, as we see by reports from those sections in the southwest where the disease has been particularly virulent the past summer. Montreal Transcript.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.—THE SUBSCRIBER having removed a few miles from the neighborhood, offers for sale one valuable tract of land containing between five and six hundred acres; only sixty acres cleared, the balance is in original growth and well timbered, lies on Middle Creek in Wake county, and 14 miles south of Raleigh. There is no dwelling house on the land, but there are other buildings, fine water, and a beautiful site for a residence immediately on the stage road leading from Raleigh to Fayetteville. THE SEMI-WEEKLY DEMOCRAT.

IN ORDER TO PUT THE PRICE OF OUR COUNTRY paper within the reach of every body, we have determined to furnish Clubs with the Semi-Weekly South-Side Democrat, at the following cash rates:

For single copies,	$ 3 00
" five "	13 00
" ten "	25 00
" fifteen "	30 00

The person sending us fifteen dollars will be entitled to five copies for the subscribers furnished, and an extra one for himself.

In addition to this, we propose to send the Semi-Weekly paper to new subscribers during the Campaign, say from 1st of June to 1st of December (6 months) at the following invariably cash prices:

" 5 " "	7 50
With an extra copy for the person sending the money.
For 8 copies,	10 00

and a larger number at the same rates.

It is believed that the Semi-Weekly Democrat has the largest country circulation of any paper in the city of Petersburg. We are not content, however, but desire to increase it still further, until every good Democrat in the whole south-side section, shall become enlisted with us in the great cause of Democracy.

The South-Side Democrat has just been clothed in a neat and handsome dress of entirely new type, and it will contain in addition to all the latest foreign and domestic news, a large mass of political facts and data for use and reference in the ensuing campaign—a campaign, we venture to say, which promises more interest and excitement than any of its predecessors.

Thankful for past and present encouragement, we respectfully call the attention of the Democracy in this section, particularly, to the liberal inducements held out by this advertisement, and urge them to speedy and energetic action, not only in our behalf, but in furtherance of sound, conservative, patriotic, national Democratic principles.

BANKS & THACKSTON,
Proprietors and Editors.
